

Bangkok 19 July 2010

To Whom it May Concern,

Letter of Reference: Lao Law and Consultancy Group

We write this letter in support of Lao Law and Consultancy (LLC), a firm who recently represented this Embassy in an extremely important matter in Laos. It is with much pleasure that we refer this firm to you, based on the positive experience we had in dealing with them. In our experience, LLC processed our orders efficiently and effectively. We trust in LLC's professionalism and believe they dealt with our case with the strictest confidentiality.

From our initial meeting, it was quickly demonstrated that the management and staff at LLC had a deep understanding of legal matters and we felt confident that LLC were equipped with the necessary skills and expertise to respond to our needs. Upon the delivery of their work, it was evident that LLC's technical skill was of high level. The legal argument and reference to the relevant laws was accurate and this high standard of work is testament to their meticulousness and attention to detail. In short, we were more than satisfied with the work produced by them.

One thing setting LLC is the personal feel. From their phone manner to dealing with staff face to face, one can feel comfortable expressing any matters or concerns freely. LLC were always available for consultation when there were matters that we did not fully comprehend. They were more than happy to assist us in working through such matters and in doing so, reinforced their reputation of being client-focused.

LLC are a firm that we would most certainly work with again and have no hesitation in commending them. If it had not been for LLC's hard work and dedication to our matter, we would not have been able to achieve our business aims and we are grateful for the contribution that they have made to the success of our business.

Yours Sincerely,

The Ambassador

(pp)

The Head of Administration and Consular Affairs

D.P. Trimp

