

The Ministry of Health's Food and Drugs Department Deputy Director General, Dr Lamphone Syhakhang (fourth right), receives a printer and two computer sets worth 12 million kip from the Lao Law and Consultancy Group in Vientiane on Friday. The office equipment will be used in the course of the department's work.

A clothing stall set up at the That Luang esplanade, where shoppers might be able to find a bargain. The stalls have been set up well ahead of the That Luang Festival itself, which takes Indonesian Defence Attache Colonel Saptono Adji (left) presents a souvenir to Deputy Minister of Public Security, Brigadier General Sinthavong Xayakone, on Friday. Mr Adji is returning to Indonesia after completing his three-year mission in Laos to strengthen military and friendship ties between the two countries.

--Photo Sisouphan

Children play on a ride set up at the That Luang esplanade. There will be many fun things on